Research with the Internet
Created by Doris Grasserbauer – dgrasserbauer@ccny.cuny.edu

Topics:
1. CUNY Resources
2. Ask ERIC

1. CUNY Resources - http://www.cuny.edu/libraries.html

The City University of New York (CUNY) has 19 campuses. Each campus has at least one library. The Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC) has all CUNY library collections included. Students can access all CUNY libraries with a current student ID card.

CUNY offers 4 tutorials as introduction to research and how to use the CUNY resources:
- Tutorial 1: Determine Your Information Needs
- Tutorial 2: Define Your Research Topic
- Tutorial 3: Locate and Retrieve Relevant Information
- Tutorial 4: Use the Technological Tools For Accessing Information
- Etc.

List of databases available via the CUNY system:
- CUNY: http://www.cuny.edu/libraries/j-and-r.html
- CCNY alphabetical: http://134.74.20.33/resources/databases.jsp (including EBSCO)
- CCNY by subject: http://resources.ccny.cuny.edu/resources/subjects.jsp

The City College Library Website: http://www1.ccny.cuny.edu/library/index.cfm

The Educational Resources Information Center (ERIC) was a federally funded national information system providing several subject-specific clearinghouses on a broad range of education-related issues. This service has been discontinued but most of the resources can also be found on The Educator’s Reference Desk: http://www.eduref.org

- Resource Collection: over 3000 resources on a variety of educational issues.
- Lesson Plans: collection of lesson plans by teachers from all over the United States.