NEW PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES
FOR CURRENT NON-PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS AND LEADERS

PROGRAM BEGINS JULY 5, 2017

The Non-Public School Project is a tuition scholarship offered by the New York State Education Department.

The aim of the project is to provide professional development for non-public school teachers and leaders interested in enhancing their pedagogical skills, leadership abilities, and knowledge of how to support high-quality academic standards.

Title IIA Federal Funds pay for all costs of enrollment up to $1,550 per course for up to 3 courses (9 credits). (Based on current in-state tuition rates.)
